YOUR ITINERARY

Athens, Greece

Parliament Building

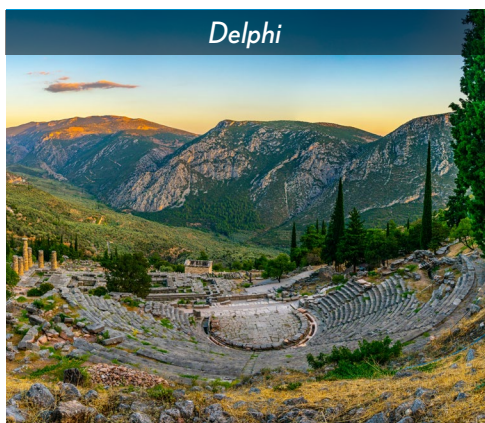

Acropolis Museum

OCTOBER 20, 2022 – ATHENS SCENIC CITY TOUR, ACROPOLIS MUSEUM & LUNCH (3-night package)

For those visiting Athens for the first time, this 4-½-hour tour is a wonderful introduction to one of the great cities of the ancient world. See the marble stadium built in 144 AD and excavated in 1896 to serve as the home for the modern Olympic Games, in 1896 and again in 2004.

Catch a view of the Parliament Building, which stands proudly on Constitution Square with its colorful evzones—ceremonial presidential guards—protecting the Monument to the Unknown Soldier. Your scenic tour of Athens will continue to the Acropolis Museum, home to nearly 4,000 artifacts found at the Acropolis dating from between the Greek Bronze Age and Byzantine periods.

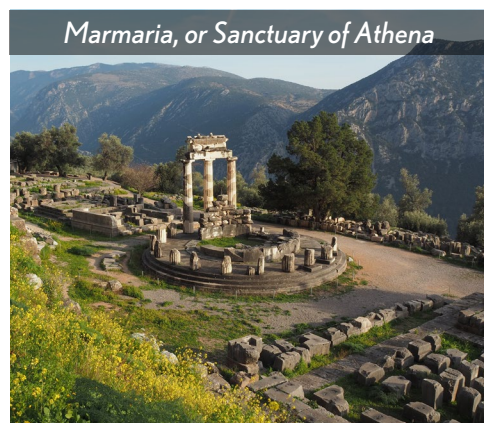

After visiting the museum, stroll through Plaka, the old district of Athens with its numerous, cafes, restaurants, and souvenir shops. Enjoy a guided walking tour of this beautiful area before tucking into a traditional Greek souvlaki lunch. After lunch, choose to return to your hotel with our guide, or stay in Plaka for time at leisure and make your own way back to the hotel.

Delphi

Temple of Apollo

Marmaria, or Sanctuary of Athena

OCTOBER 21, 2022—TEMPLE OF APOLLO, SANCTUARY TO THE PRIESTESS ORACLE OF DELPHI & LUNCH

The grandeur of Delphi has to be seen to be believed. Nature and ancient ruins blend in an extraordinary way, enhancing the beauty of one another against a setting of mountains, terraces, and trees. Board your deluxe air-conditioned motor coach and head to Delphi from Athens via the National Highway, passing by the towns of Thebes and Levadia, where we will make a short rest stop. Situated on the slopes of Mount Parnassos at a height of 700 meters, Delphi was once believed to be the center of the earth. Begin your guided tour from the Sanctuary of Apollo, where you will follow the paved Sacred Way to reach the Doric Temple of Apollo. In its adyton (small chamber), the High Priestess Pythia sat on a tripod and delivered the oracles. The theatre and the stadium used for the main events of the Pythian Festival are on terraces above the temple. To the right of the entrance to the sanctuary is the Castalian fountain, where Pythia washed before speaking her prophecies. Across and below the road from the spring is the Marmaria, or Sanctuary of Athena, with the conspicuous building of Tholos. Your visit continues to the museum, which contains a rare and exquisite collection of archaic sculptures, including the world-famous Charioteer. After your tour of Delphi, enjoy a three-course lunch at a local area restaurant and then board your coach back to your hotel.

Acropolis

The Propylaea

Porch of Maidens, the Caryatids

OCTOBER 22, 2022—ACROPOLIS & ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM

Board your deluxe air-conditioned motor coach for a short drive to the National Archaeological Museum, one of the world's great museums. With more than 11,000 exhibits, it provides a panorama of Greek civilization from the beginnings of Prehistory to Late Antiquity. Then continue your drive to the Acropolis, a symbol of the glory of ancient Greece. Climb its smooth marble steps as visitors have for centuries. History opens before you as you reach one of the masterpieces of classical architecture, the Propylaea, which serves as the entrance to the complex. See the Temple of Athena Nike, or Wingless Victory, and the Erechtheum with its classical Porch of Maidens, the Caryatids.

Stand in awe of what is considered the most perfect example of classical architecture in the world, the Parthenon, designed as a shrine to Athena and at one time housing a massive gold and ivory statue of the warrior goddess. Looking down from the Acropolis see the two ancient theaters in its shadow—the Greek theater of Dionysus where the masterpieces of Aeschylus, Sophocles, Euripides, and Aristophanes debuted to delighted audiences, and the grand Roman theater of Herod Atticus, restored and used for concerts and classical plays during the summer Athens Festival. After our full visit to the Acropolis, board your motor coach and drive to Piraeus port for embarkation on the beautiful Azamara Pursuit.
